Then As Now? Ten Years Ago...

Fred Holliss

The cover of the November 2008 newsletter welcomed our new Board on board and announced the Harvest Fair. Patricia Cramwell’s lowest active listing was $300k, and Principal Jim Gibb was excited for the upcoming year “Educating Tomorrow’s Citizens Today.” ‘Scouter’ Rick Ryan told us about trips, both on foot and by canoe, and mentioned handing out CFL bulbs for free. Oh, how far lighting has come in 10 years! The Board reported on legislation for properties used for illegal activities. (At that time we had crack- and whorehouses in Ramsay.) Finally, Beth Carter had a fascinating article on the history of Spiller Road (The Old North Trail).

and I must say I am slightly relieved there is seasonal snow covering Lilydale and walking the dog will require insulation but at least this makes sense the weather is not messing with us today

In this issue, we reflect on the joys of the garden season, ponder pot planning, and enjoy snippets of Ramsay from long past through the eyes of Sam Hester’s Ramsay. This issue also contains one more publication of the draft bylaws that will be voted on during a special meeting on December 4th. Unfortunately, this edition arrives late at your doorstep, but I hope it still brings you some November joy!

Planning and Development

Erin Joslin, VP External/Chair of Civic Affairs

Planning and Development impacts all residents of Ramsay. Stay Informed and have your say. I am always available to hear comments, questions, concerns, clarifications, or provide additional information. New members are always welcome on the Civic Affairs Committee. You can contact me, Erin Joslin, Vice-President External at vpeexternal@ramsaycalgary.ca.

Well everyone, the countdown is on. This is officially my last year in this position and on the board. The bylaws state that you can only be on the board for five years. I know, I can’t believe it has been five years already either. I would love to transition this position, so if you are interested in being the next Vice President External, reach out to me and we can chat.

Here is what has been happening with Civic Affairs lately:

Ramsay Area Redevelopment Plan (ARP)

We have been assigned a new planner for our ARP. Still waiting to hear when the engagement begins again.

#1 1701 11 ST SE (DP2018-4588) – Change of Use: Cannabis Store

This is a change of use, not yet a planned store. That means this is the first step in the potential process. The first step is to allow for cannabis at this location. If the change of use gets approved, then the next possible step would be a development permit, which the community would also get to comment on.

The proposed location has not yet been reviewed by the committee. If you have any comments you would like to be considered to be included please email me.

NOTICE

OF SPECIAL MEETING

OF THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE RAMSAY COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION.

Date: December 4th at 7:00 pm

Location: Ramsay Community Association Hall

Agenda:
1. Call to Order
2. Adoption of Agenda for Special Meeting of the Ramsay Community Association
3. Motion to Adopt Revised Bylaws
4. Motion to Adjourn

Ramsay Community Association is providing our membership a Notice of Special Meeting to revise the current Ramsay Community Association Bylaws.

The revision to the Bylaws requires VOTING BY OUR MEMBERSHIP:

A draft of the revised bylaws can be found on page 18 following this announcement, or online at ramsaycalgary.ca.

Jefferies Park Update

Teresa Smith

Erin Joslin, Melody Rodger and I met with Councillor Carra to discuss master planning of Jefferies Park. Through our discussion, Councillor Carra painted a picture where Jefferies Park, all things related to the Green Line in the area, and real estate development in the area were woven together as a cohesive, attractive, usable and valuable space to the community. The Green Line team has only recently begun to think about this piece and that development of this should fall within the scope of Green Line. Councillor Carra stated that he was committed to pushing for this vision with the Green Line team and to work it into the ARP.

After this issue of the newsletter, newsletter updates about Jefferies Park will be included under Erin’s “Planning and Development” updates.

* As of Date of Ramsay Community Association - Annual General Meeting Oct 02, 2018.
The summer may have come to an abrupt end, but it was great while it lasted for Ramsay gardeners. This writer is a novice gardener and I was thrilled to watch the yellow flowers of my zucchini bloom, and the greens and purples of my kale shine in the sun. I was a little less impressed with how my dill went to seed so quickly and how those onions I planted never materialized. I was amazed at the plots of my fellow gardeners, and the incredible variety of vegetables and flowers that emerged throughout the summer.

We put the Community in Ramsay Community Garden this year. Experienced gardeners shared advice with newbies. Several people came out on the May 11 clean-up day, with Ernán McLoughlin bringing his lawn mower and weed trimmer to really tidy things up. Jim Pihulak, a gardener from the Beltline, gifted many plots with little envelopes of seeds. More than one gardener bought a replacement nozzle for the hose as the summer wore on. Neighbours watered one another’s plots during their holidays, and Henna Vertio and her sons watered the entire plot nearly every morning. Viljo, age 3, shared with me, “I liked helping Mama water” and his brother Toivo, 7, said, “I liked watering the whole garden so I can help everybody so their plants got enough to drink because it’s important to help each other.”

This year, only two plots were used by people from outside of Ramsay, and the remainder were used by Ramsay locals as well as the Ramsay School. Single people, couples, and families took part. To Anne Finnimore, having the garden plot “gives the kids the opportunity to experience gardening. They get a chance to dig around for bugs and eat the fruit of their labour. The kids help out with weeding, planting, and watering. It’s a nice routine in the evening to walk over and check on progress or water.” To her son Caleb, age 7, “The best part is using the hose to water the plants.” To Milo, age 10, “Digging in the dirt is the best part.” Their family planted zucchini, beets, green onions, and a tomato plant.

Carol Engstrom once again volunteered to oversee the garden this year. She and her family planted beans, cabbage, carrots, and onions, to moderate success in her judgment, as well as potatoes which were plentiful. “I love being part of the Community garden as it brings people together to grow their own food and get their hands dirty.”
This past summer we assimilated engineering studies and plans required for a building permit; our application is in process, as we complete some additional requirements. Our desired timeline of fall/winter 2018 will be amended to coincide with affordable supported living funding programs.

A consultation with seniors in East Village about their future age-in-place vision will be complete, by the time this article is published. Approaching East Village naturally progressed from our work in Inglewood and Ramsay. It is an honour to bring their ideas to the forefront with the help of CMLC, The City of Calgary Planning, and Alberta Health. It is wonderful to have seniors themselves drive the conversation on their future… we’ve just gotten started!

The need to address seniors’ housing and its place in the community, is confirmed on a daily basis. Recently, Danielle Smith of Q770, and CTV’s Darrel Janz both focused on the subject with regard to our work. Thanks to Inglewood & Ramsay for getting things started!

WITH HELP FROM OUR FRIENDS!
JLF’s major event Target:0018 took place on November 3, with the help of Servus Credit Union, our major sponsor. We also received fundraising help from our friends at Kasian Architecture, who hosted their own event. We feel blessed to have such wonderful community support…it does take a village!

Elderhouse is a wonderful way to leave a community legacy. Call us if you would like to honour someone in your family by donating in their name and give a gift that lasts.

The Ramsay School Journalist
Aria

An Interview with Ms. Tickles, Principal of Ramsay School

How long have you been at Ramsay School?
Over ten years!

How many kids are at Ramsay School?
When I first started there were around 85 students, and this year it has grown to be 145 students.

If there is one thing you could change about Ramsay School what would it be?
For it to be accessible by all people. When they had elections at the school they tried to put ramps at up the school, but the stairs are too steep so it didn't work. So we can't have ramps at the school. We also can't put an elevator in because the City doesn't want to damage a historical building.

What is your favourite thing about Ramsay School?
That there is a sense of community between the students, staff and parents and we all work together to make Ramsay a welcoming place.

What's one thing that would surprise people about you?
I like to travel, but I only go to each place once, even if I loved it. I want to explore the entire world so I have to keep travelling to new places.

But luckily I figured out you don't have to go somewhere exotic to find a good story. Good stories happen here!!

Hi everyone! Here are some highlights from a few years of Ramsay Comics. Enjoy!

Erin's dog chewed through his leash!

Oh no!

It's ok we got him!

Right on my street!!

Erin's dog chewed through his leash!

Oh no!

It's ok we got him!

Right on my street!!

A footprint deep in the sidewalk of my street

A porthole window

A space in the sidewalk cut away for a pine sapling

(which came first?)

From a boat!

I haven't figured out what this is really going to look like....

Historical tidbits?

I just heard from a student's grandma that her mom had the role of playing the piano during fire drills at Ramsay School long ago!

"The music was the alarm! What was she supposed to do in a real fire?"

There's always wine and cats and the cats always come and sit on me.

Yes!

Me too!

Yes!

No!

My silent face off with a woodpecker
Gardeners are out and rabbits too.

June 19

Ack—haven't drawn the Ramsay comic strip yet!

Just say you were too busy building an ark!

"Looks like nothin' but rain..."

There's that one squeaky gate.

Sliding down an ice bank in order to load children into the car.

The Heritage Committee was started up around '06 by Angie Maeots with such events as an RCMP-led parade along Spiller Rd (the old North Trail).

Thanks to initiatives like the award-winning Century Homes Project, Calgary Heritage is a hot topic!

Ramsay? The place that always has a skunk problem?

Oh... 23rd Ave is such an exciting street!

hm... i guess it looks like i will be staying in Ramsay for now!

You can see all the old Ramsay comics on my website: the23rdstory.com

AND THEY WANT TO HEAR your Ramsay stories!

I remember when we would like to collect these oral histories.

Proposed New Playground Update

Thank you to everyone who took the time to chat with us and sign the surveys for the proposed new fenced-in playground within the off-leash dog park at Bellevue and MacDonald Avenues! Almost everyone we spoke with was supportive, as well as City Parks and the RCA Board.

We have submitted the application to the Calgary Parks Foundation to open a Project Gift Administration account. Once approved, the $100,000 from Green Line will be transferred into the account and we can start fundraising. In the meantime, the Calgary Parks Foundation will be helping us request design proposals from a few playground suppliers.

There may not be any updates for the next couple of newsletters as these processes will take some time. If you have any questions, concerns or comments, please feel free to email us at jefferiespark-committee@gmail.com or come chat with us at an RCA general meeting. RCA general meetings start at 7PM on the first Tuesday of most months at the community hall. Dates for the next general meeting are also listed on the cover of the newsletter.
